

Angie McLeod, HIP Strategic Consulting

Conversation Starter & Facilitator
Business Strategist & Mentor
Entrepreneurial Coach

"Angie is approachable, knowledgeable and delivers complex information in a very direct and engaging manner. She likes to think (and speak) outside the box..."

Vanessa Schumacher,
Women's AM Executive Committee Member

604.476.2447 | angie@hipstrategic.com | www.hipstrategic.com

/HIPStrategic

/hipstrategic

/HIPstrategic

Ignite Ideas | Invite discovery.

Angie McLeod is a skilled presenter and conversationalist with an aptitude for posing questions that ignite ideas and invite discovery among listeners.

Her passion for personal growth, life, community and business, combined with a desire to see everyone be #wildlysuccessful on their own terms, lead to stimulating presentations that challenge the status quo, inspire ideas, generate change, and invite listeners to seek opportunities to collectively discover and co-create.

Conversational Intelligence

Shift your Conversations from Good to Great. Statistics show that 9/10 conversations fail to achieve their goal. Join us learn how we can improve our Conversational Intelligence® and learn skills that shift your conversations from good to great where the oxytocin flows.

Building Trust Relationships Trust is the cornerstone of every relationship we have. Trust takes time to earn and can be lost in an instant. Learn how to use simple Conversational Intelligence® tools to build stronger trust relationships.

Leadership

Self-Leaderships: Learn to Trust Yourself One of the biggest challenges that entrepreneurs face is self-leadership: staying motivated, managing internal message, and finding ways to stay positive. Join us to learn how to overcome a negative mindset faster and lead yourself in a more positive and productive manner.

Business Management

Take the Fear Out of Networking: Be Curious! Questions and curiosity build authentic relationships with those you meet at networking events and shift the focus away from the traditional networking spiel. Discover what types of questions can shift the conversations, build trust, and open up your conversations in new and exciting ways that help you grow relationships and business.

Balance: Make Choices, Manage Expectations Women entrepreneurs are striving for better balance; it's a common lament. But is it really about balance or is it about expectations and choices? Examine the link between choices, expectations, boundaries and balance to regain control over your life.

Strategic Planning

Bring Your Goals to Life: Set Your Intentions Strategic annual planning is often overlooked in the busy lives of women entrepreneurs. What if your annual planning was simple? Easy? What if you could complete it in an afternoon? You can! This interactive workshop is all about creating a visual intention poster, so bring your creative juices, ideas for business growth, and colourful felts!

Bio

Angie McLeod, Lead Conversation Starter & Facilitator, at HIP Strategic Consulting brings her excitement for life, business, and personal growth to her stimulating presentations.

With over 20+ years of consulting and coaching business owners, Angie has learned that the clients have the answers they need; they simply need to be asked the right questions.

One of Angie's most celebrated skills is her ability to shine a light through the "fog" to help women entrepreneurs gain clarity of direction, put ideas into action, and define desired outcomes.

Curiosity, questions and conversations are at the heart of the work she does. She uses these tools to connect people, stimulate ideas, inspire change, and engage participants in collective discovery and co-creation.

Woven throughout her presentations – and central to her life's purpose – is her desire for each client she works with to be #wildlysuccessful on their own terms. After all, success is very personal.

Angie's presentations are packed with insights, humour, personal stories, and an occasional bit of drama – just to keep the audience enthralled. After all, why be boring? Life isn't!

